Dear Reader,

We have not met, and somehow I feel like we already know each other. Isn't that a bit strange? Have we met in another life? Another realm? Maybe. I wouldn't be so keen on excluding those possibilities. But that is not why you are here.

I diverge.

You have set course on a journey that will take you beyond the realms of yourself... beyond the Universe as you know it... and I am here to guide you.

The file that you're holding in your hands has been waiting for your arrival. You see, when I first published Book One on June 22nd, 2018, signs (too many to ignore) began to emerge, all suggesting a deeper reason why I wrote this book in the first place. A thread... a silver lining running through the whole story that, at the time, was still unknown to me. Well, at least the scope of it.

I didn't make much of it then, hence the empty pages. But now, things have changed. The world is not the same anymore, and it seems the thread (this mystery you are here to solve) wants to reveal itself. And it wants to do it now.

If you're ready to follow the thread and see where it leads, I'll be right there with you... putting ink to paper and insights into words.

Now has come the time to pass this file on to you and hope for the best. Know that it is a living map, a dream catcher for hidden clues, a secret tracker if you will.

How to Use This Collector:

Some clues will scream at you, while others might give you a harder time. Nonetheless, trust your gut, for each discovery will bring you closer, not just to the truth of the story, but to maybe something greater neither of us could predict.

Follow your curiosity. Note the clues you see, your feelings about certain things, and especially your nudges. Use any section, in any order. Add pages. Scribble in it. Highlight. Sketch. This is now yours.

Yours truly,

Jennifer Oaks
